RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On April 23, 2020, Holly Tigges filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered to her on October 4, 2017. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 5, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent agrees that the evidence shows that Petitioner had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction in her left shoulder; Petitioner’s pain and reduced range of motion occurred within 48 hours of receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; Petitioner's symptoms were limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality was identified to explain Petitioner's symptoms. Id. at 8. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner has satisfied the statutory requirement that an injury must last for at least six months, as required by 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-11(c)(1)(D)(i). Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
